

GLORY & FIRE REVIVAL MINISTRIES

"Reaching Out To The Lost, One By One"

Dorine and Gary White

This ministry has encompassed refugee camps, prisons and jails, nursing homes and the homeless, as well as mission trips to Guyana south America, Guatemala, Argentina, Mexico, Canada and Trinidad West Indies.

Rev. White has pastored a Native American church in Anadarko, Oklahoma, a church in Morganfield, Kentucky and also held services in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and Arkansas.

While attending the Revival School of Ministry, Gary was active on the Prayer Team at Brownsville Assembly of god in Pensacola, Florida. He was also involved in the ministry of Rev. Paul Wetzel, the brother-in-law of Rev. John Kilpatrick, where he was touched by the spirit of revival through these ministries and men. Rev. Wetzel recommends Gary white as one of those approved and endorsed to carry the revival anointing to the nations.

As a result of tier ministry of love and dedication, Gary and Dorine have seen people saved; backsliders recovered; believers equipped to work for the Lord, filed with the Holy spirit, renewed, refresh and healed.

They are evangelists with a heart for revival, discipleship and mentorship and a desire to encourage the body of Christ in its call and service to the Lord.

Rev. Gary White was born in Lexington, Kentucky. He served in the U.S. Army until his retirement in March of 2003. While stationed in Kansas, Texas, Colorado, Korea and twice in Germany, Gary and Dorine, his wife of thirty years, ministered to the soldiers, holding revival services and freely opening their home.

Dorine, born in Atlanta, Georgia and herself a wonderful teacher of the Word of God to both adults and children, has stood by Gary for twenty years of ministry and thirty-one years of marriage. They have three wonderful daughters.

They currently live in Birmingham;, Alabama at 517 NW Sunhill Road. The zip code is 36215 and their phone number is 405-933-1266.
